RECENT REPLECTIONS.

Even in a cyclone country money is better than wind to handle big enterprises.

-Stuart Henry, formerly of Abilene, is given in the list of the K. C. Journal's attaches as being in charge of the Journal's Paris agency.

-Every one can have a picture of Patsy Curtis. A handsome little book containing a description of Abilene's fast flyer and a lifelike picture has been issued.

-A pension has been granted Mrs. Courtney of this city with arrearageamounting to $2,400. It is a very nice help for her. It has been 17 years since she began her efforts to secure it

-The Dramatic club will soon present Gillett's "The Professor," the musical comedy that has been so striking with eastern audiences. There will be about 16 people in the cast, all representing college students, girls and boys, and the piece promises to be the best thing ever given by the club. The organization is doing much to make Abilene a good theatrical town.

—The Salina people and papers are making a great light for more equitable freight rates. Salina folks pull to-gether; Abilene folks do not.—[An-LENE HEFLECTOR.

Thanks for the compliment, but we trust the actions of the Abilene folks are more apparent than real and less apparent than imaginary. Abilene is all right, having successfully gone through what would have discouraged and eternally busted a town less brave and worthy Brace up, Sister REFLEC TOR, we'll wager a hat full of sandburs that your town is better off, and its people more united than you have any idea.-[Salina Journal.

-The people of Enterprise and Dickinson county who used to know Mr. Geza or Mr. Dome (which ever it may be) will appreciate this from the Clay Center Times: "What a terrible time the papers are having with the name of the new State University fiddler. When he farmed up in this country he was known as Dome, pro-nounced Demmg. A little later as Dome Gezs and still later as K. Dome Geza. Now it is Herr K. Dome vot Geza, and one Lawrence paper calls it Mr. Herr K. Dome von Geza. The chancellor in his report takes a new tack and writes him down Mr. K. Geza Dome. Why not settle this once and forever by calling him Smith K. Smith?"

Mistropolitan papers speak with great interest of Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent Indiana specialist in nervous and heart disease, who has proven that this habit arises from a diseased heart. He has examined and kept on record thousands of cases. His New Heart Cure, a wonderful remedy, is sold at J. M. Gleisener's drug store. Thousands M. Gleissner's drug store. Thousands testify to its value as a cure for heart diseases. Mrs. Chas, Benoy, Loveland Colo., says its effects on her were marvelous. Elegant book on heart disease free.
